New Beginnings:

As we begin January 2019, typically we look at new resolutions or new beginnings. Throughout our lives we have multiple beginnings. In my life, the first beginning was at my birth. A new beginning was my second birth which made me a Child of God, when I signed the contract, so to speak, of baptism. As we continue through life, we have a new beginning each and every day. In 2011 I died, and God gave me a new beginning of a second life after contracting cerebral malaria. Due to many of the medications given me during my recovery of the malaria, my joints are now deteriorating so I had a double knee replacement and now I have a new beginning to be able to walk again without pain.

The bigger question is what are we to do with the new beginnings? As with New Year's resolutions, do we make them and then in a few days or months forget all about them? Did we make them in a serious manner or just because someone said it was the time to make new resolutions (following our culture)? Why does God give us new beginnings, and do we take them seriously? I know in myself that is not always the case. I was given a second life in 2011. Yes, I am living and breathing and doing things for IRI. I went back to work, thinking this was what I should do. After all, didn't God allow me to become a nurse to help people? Well maybe and maybe not. Much of my life has been spent doing what I thought I was supposed to do for God. But as I learn more (Thanks to the Holy Spirit as he is the teacher.) I am beginning to understand that doing what I think is best for God may not be what is best for God. After all He really does know more than me! We can be thankful that he allows us new beginnings. God knows that we will make mistakes. All he wants is for us to listen to Him through the Holy Spirit and then do His will not ours. If we are living in Him both His will and ours will be the same. But often, our will does not match up with His.

Fear often causes us to back off from doing what we need in each new beginning. I know that by doing what I wanted in 2011-12, I did not make the best use of time for God. I intend to seriously move on in 2019 to listen more to the Holy Spirit and then step out and do it. Even if it is uncomfortable (which it probably will be), even if that means not doing something I want to do, I will do it. Will I fail and fall down at times? Of course I will, but I am forgiven for my mistakes. All He wants is for us to try. I have made my resolution or new beginning for 2019. How about you? What are you going to do for the God this year with your new beginnings?

“In their hearts humans plan their course, but the Lord establishes their steps.” Proverbs 15:9

“But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ ---- the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith.” Philipines 3:7-8

God bless and thank you,

News Flash!

This is our latest update from Leonard, our Mozambique Coordinator and lead developer. As of 2017, when Al Corson came home from Mozambique, Leonard and his disciples had been working with over 350 villages and churches starting a transformation within Mozambique that was recognized by the Mozambique Government. Al talked with Leonard last night and was told that this number has quadrupled throughout Mozambique to over 1200 villages and has even reached the Government of Mozambique and to surrounding countries like Zimbabwe. Leonard tells us that IRI is now teaching some Zimbabwean government officials. Conservative math would mean that 1200 villages x 100 people per village equals 120,000 people. That's a lot of people being reached by IRI's ministry! So, what is happening in these villages?

1. A personal relationship with self or a direct Identity is being developed by the indigenous people for the first time since colonialism.
2. Because of this new relationship with themselves the indigenous people are now developing a personal relationship with Christ for the first time.
3. This relationship makes it possible for the indigenous people to develop a world view difference between natural and supernatural.
4. Now the indigenous people can take control of their environment and be self-developing and productive.
5. They are able to honor God through their cognitive development and are beginning to leave behind Animism as a historical fact that existed before their transformation.
6. They are transforming their minds as in Romans 12:2 to understand for themselves what God's will is for them.

Prayer Partners
